THE ORIGINAL PLASTIC RUG CRAFTED WITH LOVE AND PRIDE IN SWEDEN

It is the unlimited number of possibilities that attracts me to the process of weaving. Possibilities fuel my dreams and ideas, many of which are realised at a weaving mill in Leksand in my native Dalarna in Sweden. This is where all Pappelina rugs are made, by skilled craftsmen, on old, mechanical looms. It is almost twenty years since my new version on the traditional, woven Swedish runner rug saw the world for the first time. Although the plastic ribbons from the 1960's that inspired me and opened up new prospects, have been replaced by modern, certified vinyl, much remains the same. Still today, when we ship our rugs to 40 countries around the world, we manage to stay true to our core values combining Swedish craftsmanship with modern design and functionality. I am very proud of this.
